The Position of Area Commissioner for Rivorton Service Area

Have you always wanted to make a real difference in the growth and development of youth in New Brunswick? Are you energetic, organized, a natural leader who can work at the top level to support and lead hundreds of volunteers? Do you enjoy being part of a dynamic team? If so, you're invited to submit your application for the volunteer position of Area Commissioner, Rivorton Area.

Reporting to the New Brunswick Council Commissioner and working with a team of volunteers, the Area Commissioner (AC) will be responsible for the overall delivery of the Scouts Canada program in the Rivorton Service Area and its future development and growth. The Rivorton Service Area encompasses all groups along or near the Saint John River Valley between Gagetown and Edmundston; there are currently 17 groups and 827 members within the Rivorton Service Area.

The successful applicant will demonstrate strong leadership, organizational and communication skills. Experience in Scouts Canada or other branches of the Scout movement will be an asset, although not essential

The appointment will be for a one year term renewable yearly, up to three years.

Further details on the scope of the position are available upon request.

Interested candidates should submit a resume outlining previous volunteer work along with the names and contact information for three references.
